

Canada's Justice Development Goals 2019

This is the Action Committee's annual survey of A2J activities for the 2019 Progress Report on Canada's Justice Development Goals.

We want to highlight your work in the 2019 report!

The survey will take approximately 20 minutes to complete, depending on how many activities you are reporting on.

The 9 Justice Development Goals are listed below, with an opportunity for you to list your organization's activities that advance each JDGs. The Report is designed to convey meaningful progress on A2J issues to the public and to those in and beyond the justice sector. Activities that will be included in the Report include changes in approach or processes, new projects, research, funding announcements and research.

Only activity competed in 2019 will be included in the Report. This can include sessions or events that you host annually, and that happened in 2019, but should not include a description of your general operating mandate.

Your responses will be used to draft the 2019 Progress Report. Your submission will also be converted into a PDF report about your activities that can be shared online.

If you are unfamiliar with the JDG's, click here (<http://www.justicedevelopmentgoals.ca>) to see how these goals frame, connect or inspire the coordinated work of individuals, organizations and institutions across Canada.

The JDGs are available online in English at: www.justicedevelopmentgoals.ca (<http://www.justicedevelopmentgoals.ca>) or in French at www.objectifsdelaccesàlajustice.ca (<http://www.objectifsdelaccesàlajustice.ca>)

There are 32 questions in this survey.
